Fraud prevention: We use the data collected to ensure the security of our networks and information systems, and identify and prevent fraud and other prohibited or illegal activities. We may also use scoring methods to identify and manage business risks such as credit risks.

Comply with legal obligations: In some cases, we collect and use your Personal Information to comply with legal and regulatory regulations, including customs and GST requirements. For example, KYC details in some cases are legally required for identity verification.

Our primary goal is to provide you with safe, efficient, smooth, cost-effective and customised experiences when you use our Services. The Personal Information collected allows us to provide the Services that most likely meet your needs. More importantly, while doing so, we collect Personal Information from you that we consider necessary for achieving the above-mentioned purposes.

We may use and disclose Other Information (defined above) and non-personal information for any purpose in accordance with applicable laws.

6. Why do we share your data and with whom?

As a rule, we do not transfer or share your Personal Information with any third party unless we are required to do so. We may share your Personal Information in the following ways:

6.1.1 Group Companies of RoadExpress

We may disclose your Personal Information with group companies of RoadExpress for the purposes set out in this Privacy Policy, including:

for enabling them to provide the Services;

for optimising our shared processes;

and for other cross-affiliate initiatives.

6.1.2 Regulatory or Government Authorities

We may disclose your Personal Information in good faith belief that such action is necessary to:

- Comply with a legal obligation;
- Comply with a request from any government, regulatory or public authority (for example: to fulfil a legal obligation during the export of a shipment);
- Protect and defend the rights or property of RoadExpress;
- Prevent or investigate possible wrongdoing in connection with our Services; and protect the personal safety of users of the service or the public.

6.1.3 Google Analytics

Our application uses Google Analytics. Google Analytics is a web analytics service offered by Google that tracks and reports traffic. Google Analytics uses cookies that are stored on your computer and that enable your use of the application to be analyzed. This data is shared with other Google services. Google may use the collected data to contextualise and personalise the ads of its advertising network.

Opt-Out Process

You can opt out of having your activity on our application available to Google Analytics by installing the Google Analytics opt-out browser add-on. The add-on prevents Google Analytics JavaScript (ga.js, analytics.js, and dc.js) from sharing information with Google Analytics about your visits and activity. The add-on can be downloaded and installed from: <http://tools.google.com/dlpage/gaoptout?hl=de>. However, we would like to point out that in this case you may not be able to use all functions of our website or mobile applications to their full extent.

For more information on the privacy practices of Google, please visit the Google Privacy Terms web page: <http://www.google.com/intl/en/policies/privacy/>

6.1.4 Third Party Vendors / Consultants / Marketers

We may engage Third Party Vendors and individuals to facilitate our services or to perform Service-related transactions or to assist us in analysing how our Service is used. For example, we may have to provide your address and other details to a third-party service provider to deliver your packages to you and process payments.

We may also engage third parties for services including but not limited to hosting data, identifying, assessing and managing credit risk, distribution, customer support and technical assistance, cloud services, processing payments, validating KYC documents to authenticate identity, delivering shipments, email delivery, undertaking audits or data analysis, web analytics, IT performance monitoring, customer relationship management, evaluating, running and optimizing user experience or our growth campaigns, polls and surveys, and assistance in the marketing, promotions and advertising initiatives of our Services.

RoadExpress will take all steps reasonably necessary to ensure that your data is treated securely and by this Privacy Policy. Before we engage any third-party vendor, we check their security practices and regularly conduct their security and privacy assessments.

These third parties have access to your Personal Information only to perform these tasks on our behalf and are obligated not to disclose or use it for any other purpose whatsoever. Also, we bind our third-party vendors in a contract to secure your data by putting monetary liabilities and surveillance practices and hence, ensuring a high level of security for your Personal Information.

Your information, including Personal Information, may be transferred to and maintained on computers located outside of your state, province, country or other governmental jurisdiction where the data protection laws may differ from those in your jurisdiction. No transfer of your Personal Information will take place to an organisation or a country unless there are security adequate controls in place.

6.1.5 Mergers / Acquisitions

As we aim to deliver a greater customer experience, we might sell or buy other service lines or business ventures. During any such transactions, we may have to provide customer information. Any such disclosure shall of course be subject to the safeguards set out in this Privacy Policy.

7. How long do we keep your Personal Information?

Please notify us of any changes to your Personal Information. We will take reasonable steps to ensure that your Personal Information is kept accurate and current.

We will retain your Personal Information for as long as needed to fulfil the purpose for which we collected it and for a reasonable period thereafter to comply with audit, accounting, contractual, technical and legal requirements, and/or to resolve any future disputes. We may retain Other Information, including non-personal information indefinitely or to the extent allowed by applicable law.

8. How do we secure your Personal Information?

We take information security very seriously and maintain reasonable administrative, technical and physical safeguards designed to protect the personal information you provide against accidental, unlawful or unauthorised destruction, loss, alteration, access, disclosure or use. Exceptionally, if any Personal Information is present on the package or letter, it may be visible to unauthorised individuals.

Application, data, infrastructure and network security are our key focus areas where data security practices are enforced. We also adhere to international standard certifications to complement the enforced practices. Considering "Right to Privacy" as a fundamental right of an individual, we have adopted various measures to protect privacy.

Links to Third-Party Solutions

Some solutions may link you or enable you to obtain certain services from third parties, including for the purpose of making a payment or sharing content through social media. When you do so, your Personal Information may be collected by those third parties, and not by us. We recommend that when you obtain such solutions from third parties, you review their privacy policy as the security of your data will be subject to their privacy terms rather than this Privacy Policy. We will not be responsible or liable in any manner with respect to how such third-party sites collect and/ or use your information.

9. Children

Our Services are not aimed at children (under the age of 18) and do not provide information specifically targeting children. If you are under 18 you may use our Services only with the involvement of a parent or legal guardian. However, if you have visited our application or used our Services, we may store your details as set out in this Privacy Policy.

10. What are your rights as a Data Subject?

You have the right to enquire on:

- What Personal Information we hold about you
- The purpose of processing such Personal Information
- The recipients to whom the Personal Information has or will be disclosed to How long we intend to store your Personal Information
- If we did not collect the data directly from you, information about the source
- The right to have incomplete or inaccurate data about you corrected or completed and the process for requesting the same
- The right to request the erasure of Personal Information (where applicable) or to restrict processing under applicable data protection laws, as well as to object to any direct marketing from us.
- The right to report any Personal Information breach at contact@roadexpress.in

11. Changes to this Privacy Policy

We may update RoadExpress's Privacy Policy from time to time. The revised and most current version of the policy will be updated and posted on the application directly. You are advised to review this Privacy Policy periodically for any changes. Changes to this Privacy Policy are effective when they are posted on this page.

12. Your Consent

By using our website, applications, or our Services, you consent to our Privacy Policy. You will also be asked to review and consent to our Privacy Policy when you create an account with us.

13. Termination of your access to the services

You can delete your account at any time by contacting us via the "Contact Us" link or via: Go to Profile > Help & Support > Delete My Account and select Proceed button.

14. Contact Us

At RoadExpress, we have a dedicated Privacy Officer to address any concerns or questions you might have about the use of your Personal Information or generally about this Privacy Policy. You can always reach out to us at contact@roadexpress.in with your grievances or questions.
